

Module assessment

Please answer the set of two multiple-choice questions.

1. How can citizen science contribute to ameliorating public transport and shared mobility scenarios?
  - a) Citizen science raises awareness and understanding of the environment and the pending environmental issues (score =1)
  - b) Citizen science can contribute to urban planning (score =0)
  - c) Citizen science allows everyone to participate in the public life (score =0)
  - d) Citizen science has an impact on environmental issues, but a limited potential in the area of alternative modes of transport (score =0)

2. According to researchers, which of the following benefits are specific to shared mobility but not to public transport?
  - a) Flexible use of public space (score =1)
  - b) Lowering CO2 levels (score =0)
  - c) Economic advantage (score =0)
  - d) Increased accessibility (score =0)